

AAG NEWSLETTER -- OCT 2020

The Alexandria Art Guild Board held it's monthly meeting at the Public Library meeting room on Oct 7 at 10:15am. There was not a lot of business to discuss but a few things to take note of.

Chanda Kraft, our marketing chairperson, will be having a show of her work at the Kaddatz in Fergus Falls from Nov 4 thru Dec 31. Members Matt & Valerie Bakke currently have a show in the Evansville Art Center. I encourage you to take the time to visit these shows if you can.

Several AAG members are participating in the Arts & Crafters Tour coming up on Nov 6-7. Look for information about this on facebook and in the Echo Press closer to the date.

The monthly meeting of the Guild will be on Oct 21 at 6:30pm at the Uptown Court (formerly The Phoenix.) Masks are required and arrangements will be made for social distancing. With care taken, hopefully we can enjoy the benefits of meeting in person again! Linda will be leading a conversation on "How do you use creativity in your regular life and how does that relate to your art?" She also has some creative activities, and all supplies will be provided. Please let her know by Tuesday, Oct 20 you are planning to come. Her email is threehavensartworks@gmail.com . Guests are always welcome!

Are you interested in being involved in a mural project? I'm looking for 3-4 volunteers to work with on developing a project for next spring/early summer. Please contact me at naomib@runestone.net or text me if you have any interest at all in this type of thing.

The marketing committee will be meeting soon to start redesigning our rack card. If you are interested in having your studio open to the public at all and would like to be listed on the rack card, email alexartguild@gmail.com with your information. There will be a fee (which has not yet been determined but likely around $20) to cover the costs.

A casualty of COVID has been that it is hard to maintain connections when we are distant. Please post your work on the facebook page Alexandria Art Lovers and comment on others' work there. Come to the meetings if you feel safe to do so. Meanwhile, keep creating and stay safe!
